SOWING SEEDS OF FASHION

"We love clothes that have a decidedly unique style, are well-made, and don't totally break the bank. But above all, we want our kids to be able to play in them. Pink Chicken dresses consistently meet all these criteria," says apple.seeds co-founder Allison Schlanger.

"Our favorite style for fall is the Reese dress with yellow birds paired with the Maude sweater in kelly green. We only wish they made both in our size," adds Alison Quarter Berna, apple.seeds other co-founder.
